

INTERREG III B CADSES

TERRITORIAL CO-OPERATION

in Central and South-Eastern Europe

CADSES Closing Conference

24th and 25th
November 2008
Venice
(Italy)

Congress Venue

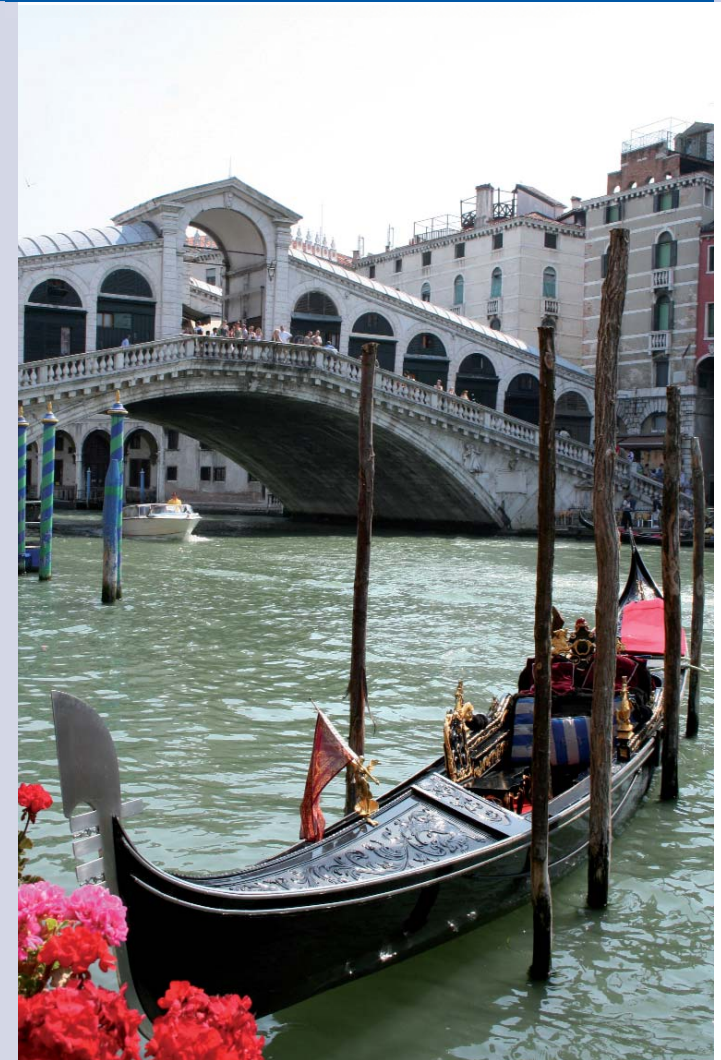

Centro Culturale
Don Orione Artigianelli
Dorsoduro, 909/A
30123 Venice - Italy
www.donorione-venezia.it

Managing Authority

Via Nomentana, 2
00161 Rome - Italy
www.cadses.net
cadses@infrastrutture.gov.it

Joint Technical Secretariat

An der Kreuzkirche, 6
01067 Dresden - Germany
www.cadses.net
cadses@jts.dresden.de

European Union

TERRITORIAL CO-OPERATION

in Central and South-Eastern Europe

CADSES Closing Conference, 24th and 25th November 2008, Venice

MONDAY, 24th NOVEMBER 2008

13.00-14.00 Registration

14.00-16.00 OPENING PLENARY SESSION

The CADSES Programme - Neighbours from Central and South-Eastern Europe in co-operation

Chair: Margarita Jancic, Ministry of the Environment and Spatial Planning, Slovenia

After outlining the perspectives of territorial co-operation in Central and South-Eastern Europe from an external point of view the opening plenary session will summarize the entire CADSES period highlighting achievements and experiences made.

Welcome speech by a regional representative

Vendemiano Sartor, Minister in charge for Economic and Institution Policy of the Veneto Region, Italy

Welcome speech by a Programme representative

Loredana Campagna, INTERREG III B CADSES NP Managing Authority, Italy

Perspectives of territorial co-operation in Central and South Eastern Europe

Aleksandra Gjoreska, Southeast European Cooperative Initiative, Vienna/Austria

INTERREG III B CADSES NP - Summarizing an outstanding period of transnational co-operation

How it all began

Walther Stoeckl, City of Vienna, Austria

What was achieved?

Bernard Witkos, CADSES JTS

National experiences

Petruta Voicu, Ministry of Development, Public Works and Housing, Romania

Regional experiences

Lodovico Gherardi, Emilia-Romagna Region, Italy

16.00-16.30 Coffee & Get-together

16.30-18.00 WORKSHOP SESSION 1

General aim of the workshop sessions is to present and discuss outstanding achievements and experiences of CADSES projects. The purpose of the workshops is to transfer the CADSES achievements to the new Territorial Co-operation Programmes by giving incentives for potential follow-up ideas or for projects already in progress.

WORKSHOP 1:

Spatial development perspectives along transport corridors and waterways

Chair: Adriano Rasi Caldogno, Secretary of the Programming Activities Area of the Veneto Region, Italy

A-B LANDBRIDGE

Giuseppe Fasiol, Veneto Region, Italy

DONAUHANSE

Gerhard Jakisch, City of Vienna, Austria

DONAUREGIONEN

Tijana Zivanovic, Republic Agency for Spatial Planning, Serbia

WORKSHOP 2:

Innovative information and communication instruments for more competitiveness and accessibility

Chair: Rosanna Semerdjian, Ministry of Economy and Finance, Greece

EMBRACE I + II

Melina Lazaropoulou, TREK Consulting, Greece

TELEACCESS

John Garofalakis, Patras University, Greece

TELM1

Giampaolo Montaletti, Lombard Agency for Education, Training and Employment, Italy

WORKSHOP 3:

Promoting environmental protection and resource management

Chair: Adrienn Futó, VATI Budapest, Hungary

TAQI

Richard Schoenstein, Austrian Environmental Expert Group, Austria

BETTER

Alessandra Folli, Centuria-RIT, Italy

EDUCATE!

Prof. Christos K. Makropoulos, National Technical University of Athens, Greece

20.30 Dinner

TUESDAY, 25th NOVEMBER 2008

09.30-11.00 WORKSHOP SESSION 2

WORKSHOP 4:

Flood risk prevention and hazard monitoring methods

Chair: Roderik Klinda, Ministry of the Environment, Slovakia

ODERREGIO

Juergen Neumueller, Infrastruktur & Umwelt Potsdam, Germany

MOSES

Boris Minarik, Slovak Hydrometeorological Institute

MONITOR

Hubert Siegel, Federal Ministry of Agriculture, Forestry, Environment and Water Economics, Austria
Stefan Kollarits, PRISMA Solutions GmbH, Austria

WORKSHOP 5:

Inner-urban development: from revitalized brownfields, green living spaces and valorized historical structures

Chair: Teresa Marcinow, Ministry of Regional Development, Poland

GREEN KEYS

Ina Šuklje Erjavec, Urban Planning Institute of the Republic of Slovenia

Juliane Mathey, Leibniz Institute of Ecological and Regional Development, Germany

Hist.Urban

Christian Huttenloher, German Association for Housing and Spatial Planning

MISTER

Moreno Po, Province of Ferrara, Italy

WORKSHOP 6:

Sustainable development of natural and cultural heritage

Chair: Frank Thaeger, Ministry of Building and Transport of Saxony-Anhalt, Germany

CARPATHIAN PROJECT

Harald Egerer, United Nations Environmental Programme, Vienna/Austria

HERITAGE ALIVE!

Andreas Strasser, Salzburg Research Association, Austria

ROME

Laura Lombardi, Umbria Region, Italy

11.00-11.30 Coffee & Get-together

11.30-13.00 CLOSING PLENARY SESSION

Where do we go from here?

Chair: Gerald Stoeger, CADSES JTS

The closing plenary session should contribute to territorial co-operation after CADSES. Representatives from DG Regio and from the INTERACT Programme will outline the framework of European Territorial Co-operation and how to improve knowledge networking within the new funding period 2007-2013.

Representatives from the follow-up programmes Central Europe and South East Europe illustrate the status quo of their work and new approaches of territorial co-operation. The conclusions should highlight the transnational added value created by the CADSES Programme.

Advancing European Territorial Co-operation - From CADSES towards 2013

Colin Wolfe, European Commission, DG Regional Policy

Knowledge Management and Capitalisation of Territorial Cooperation Programmes 2007-2013

Mauro Novello, INTERACT Programme

CENTRAL EUROPE - Cooperating for success

Walther Stoeckl, Managing Authority
CENTRAL EUROPE Programme

SOUTH EAST EUROPE - Area in transition on the way to integration

Imre Csalagovits, SEE JTS

CADSES - Utilization of its transnational added value
Francesco Nola, General Director of the General Directorate for Programming, Ministry for Infrastructures and Transport, Italy

13.00 Lunch and end of the conference